

L.I.F.E. Balkan Dancers Presents

Bulgarian Dance Workshop with Nikolay Tsvetkov!

Nikolay Tsvetkov is a Professor of Dance and Chair of the Choreography Dept. at SW University Neophit Rilski in Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria, teaching dance composition, Bulgarian folk dance, and teaching methods since 1992. He is an internationally known folklorist and dance educator and has published numerous articles on folklore and dance of the regions of Pirin and Macedonia, along with the first Bulgarian book to research, analyze and offer dance notations of the traditional dances of Petrich.

Nikolay performed with and was a soloist and choreographer for the "Pirin State Ensemble for Folk Songs and Dance " and "Trakia" State Ensemble. Nikolay has performed in over 1000 concerts around the world and his choreographies have been featured in film and television. He has taught dance seminars worldwide.

At this year's workshops he will be focusing on the differences in the 16 subcounties of Pirin dance and music, along with some dances from other folklore regions of Bulgaria.

SUNDAY, March 29th, 7:30 pm-11:00pm

LA Dancefit Studio

10936 Santa Monica Blvd, West LA

Bulgarian request dancing with Sherry Cochran during breaks
Admission: $20

For more information contact:
Sherry: Worldance1@gmail.com; lifebalkandancers.com