

PEMBE

Line Dance for Women

Source: Learned from Yusuf Dener in Ankara, Turkey, in 1977. This is a dance done by the Turkish minority in Skopje, Yugoslavia. Pembe is the name of a girl and it translates "pink."

Record: Horon 102, Side II, #2

Formation: Women in a line, hands held fwd at shldr ht

Rhythm: 2/4

Meas                    INTRODUCTION

1-8                    Hold for 16 cts

FIGURE I - Moving hips

- 1                    Facing and moving LOD, touch R toe fwd and twist R hip CCW belly-dance style
- 2                    Step R
- 3                    Touch L toe fwd and twist L hip CW belly-dance style
- 4                    Step L
- 5                    Touch R toe fwd and twist R hip CCW belly-dance style
- 6                    Step R in place, turning to face ctr
- 7                    step L in place
- 8                    Step R in place
- 9                    Touch L toe in place twisting L hip CW
- 10                    Tiny step bwd L
- 11                    Tiny step bwd R
- 12                    Tiny step L to the R as body turns to face LOD

Repeat this figure until music gets faster

FIGURE II

- 1                    Facing and moving LOD, lift R
- 2                    Step R
- 3                    Bounce on R as you lift L
- 4                    Step L
- 5                    Bounce on L as you lift R
- 6                    Step R in place, turning to face ctr
- 7                    Step L in place
- 8                    Step R in place
- 9                    Bounce on R as you lift L twd ctr
- 10                    Tiny step bwd L
- 11                    Tiny step bwd R
- 12                    Tiny step L to the R as body turns to face LOD

Repeat this figure to end of music