

SHEPHERD'S CROOK

Set dance for one man and two women. Stand in line facing top of room. On the chord, women curtsy and man bows, then all turn right about to face bottom of room. When possible, the hands are joined in line of three.

BARS

- 1-8 All lead, turn and lead up again.
- 9-16 All set with any suitable Strathspey step, e.g., forward hop on right foot, back hop on lt. behind side and front hop, repeat this on the left.
- 17-20 "The Shepherd's Crook." First (right) woman guided by the man dances under the arch formed by the arms of man and second woman, the man following her on the third step and second woman turning right about under her own arm on the fourth step.
- 21-24 Repeat "The Crook" with second (left) woman leading.
- 25-28 The man turns to first woman and taking "polka" hold with her they dance one Highland Schottische step toward the top of the room and back. (Man starts with left foot and first woman with the right).
- 29-32 The man and first woman now join right hands and dance once round--first woman to her place, while man crosses to the second woman.
- 33-40 Man and second woman repeat bars 25-42, dancing first towards bottom of room then back (man starts with left foot and second woman with the right). Man finished the turn in the middle facing first woman.
- 41-48 Reel of three across, man and first woman passing left shoulders to begin.
- 49-56 All face front, joining hands in line across and set with e.g., Highland Fling Toe Heel Step.
- 57-64 Dance three hands round and back--finishing facing front in line of 3 across.
- 65-72 All set with final step of Highland Fling. Repeat the round the leg movement of the above step here, only it is done three times with the right foot, and turn once to the left, dance this with the left foot twice and go round to the rt. twice. Again the ladies walk round once the first time and twice the second, or if desired, the second time walk round slowly. During bar 4, while man turns right about, the woman pivot right about. During bars 7 and 8, while man does the double turn left about, the women turn left about, with four slow walking steps, to finish with curtsy as the man bows.

STRATHGLASS HOUSE
