

SQUARE DANCES
(EIGHT SINGING CALLS)

BLESS YOUR PEA-PICKIN' HEART

RECORD: Windsor 4168

OPENER, MIDDLE BREAK AND CLOSER:

Well, you allemand your corner, and your partner right hand round
Then the gents star left three-quarters round the square...
Box the gnat and then change hands, catch her left - left allemand
And a grand ol' right and left you go from there..

- Do-sa-do when you meet...
- Swing'er, 'cause she's mighty sweet...
- Promenade in close relation, if she wants some conversation (say)
- " - Bless your pea pickin' heart..."

FIGURE:

Well now, the head two couples promenade, go halfway with your maid
Then you lead out to the right and circle four...
Head gents break to make two lines, forward up and back in time
Bend the lines and chain the ladies 'cross the floor...

- Pass through and promenade with this maid...
- Walk her all the way, don't be afraid...
- Home you go and balance out, do-sa-do and swing and shout
- " - Bless your pea pickin' heart..."

SEQUENCE:

Opener, figure twice for heads, middle break, figure twice for sides, closer.
